

RESOLUTION NO. 3 FOR 2001

A RESOLUTION OF CENSURE.

WHEREAS, the City Council previously adopted Resolution No. 27 for 1998, a resolution adopting Council Code of Ethics and Conduct for all City Council Meetings; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council deems it imperative that all persons, public and staff, conducting business with the City Council be treated in a professional and courteous manner; and,

WHEREAS, during the April 24, 2001 meeting, it is deemed that Councilor Robert Danielson initiated disparaging, unwarranted and unprofessional remarks toward a member of the City staff.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Sweet Home City Council resolves that Councilor Danielson's actions during the above Council Meeting are not acceptable to the Council as a whole and his disparaging remarks do not reflect the position or feelings of the remainder of the Council. Therefore, his conduct is hereby censured. He is reminded by the remainder of the Council of the City's' policy as expressed in Resolution No. 27 for 1998, and warned that any consequences of conduct in violation of the City's adopted policy will be his personal responsibility for which the City will offer him neither defense nor indemnity. He is admonished to treat citizens and City employees with dignity and respect, and that the City policy in this regard extends, as a rule of the Council, to his statements and conduct as a City Councilor during meetings of the Council.

PASSED by the Council and approved by the Mayor this 8th day of May 2001.
